

Save on Typing Overheads

Do you wish to increase your practice productivity and client base by having correspondence turned around quickly within 24 hours?

Have you ever needed work completed urgently but have no staff to complete it within the hour?

Market One Professional Business Services was established in 2003 to assist busy legal professionals with exactly these dictation and transcription challenges.

The Market One Professional Business

Services team brings together experienced legal word processor operators and legal secretaries, using the latest secure technologies, to provide a professional and confidential transcription service, together with fast turnaround and high accuracy, using your own current precedents and templates.

The Market One team members liaise with you to ascertain your specific needs, train you on the use of the new digital equipment, and train their typists to complete your work to your individual needs, using your individual documentation. They stay in constant touch with you to ensure your needs are being met, and are only a phone call away, 24 hours a day,

7 days a week for any help you require.

The process for utilising the Market One service system is easy and effective, simply dictate your work, transfer the selected material to your PC/Laptop, upload these files directly to the Market One secure server – then receive the work typed and formatted to your requirements the very next day.

In Memoriam

Maurice Francis O'Loughlin

The President, Members of Council and Members of the Law Society of South Australia note with sorrow and regret the passing of The Honourable Maurice Francis O'Loughlin, an esteemed Honorary Member of the Society who served as its President from 1975 to 1977, and as a Supreme and Federal Court Judge.

Those at the funeral service at St. Ignatius Church, Norwood, heard an eloquent eulogy delivered by the Hon. John Von Doussa QC.

Born 29th January 1933 he was the beloved husband of Judith, father of Cathy and James and grandfather of Isobel and Jack. Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Judith O'Loughlin and family. We will remember him with great respect and admiration.

A feature obituary on Justice O'Loughlin will honour him in the May edition of the Bulletin.
